Orchestral scoring meets electronica in the soundtrack for The Rapture 19 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Film Music, ROCK: Rock Roll Details: Cleveland based composer Aryavarta Kumar (Arya) writes music for independent films, TV, commercials, radio, computer games, and other media. He started writing for film in 2002 and has expanded both his study and his passion for music since that time. He has won awards for his musical contributions to films including national Telly awards and festival awards. Arya also plays live performance improvisations for events and has performed at weddings, festivals, and venues such as the prestigious PlayHouse Square in downtown Cleveland. With the growing popularity of his music, he has established himself as Cleveland's most in-demand composer for independent films. Arya went on to score several different shorts and features providing diverse music ranging from orchestral to a guitar driven heavier sound. His success has allowed him to help out with music supervisor jobs as well as connecting local indie music groups with filmmakers looking for specific band music.
