Old and new wonder-tales for children of any age 6 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Storytelling, SPOKEN WORD: Comedy Details: The story tree is one of the worlds oldest places. It is in every town and every home and every city. This is where people gather to hear stories, where mothers children, fathers sit in the shade and listen to tales that make them laugh, shiver and rejoice. Join me under the story tree and listen. Big Mouth Frog -- Youve all met regular frogs, but have you met a Big Mouth Frog? Have you heard his song? Ouj The Magnificent From the sands of Arabian deserts, hear this old tale about the largest giant of them all. The First Flute Flutes are everywhere Where did the first flute come from? Here is a new version of an old tale told by the Iroquois People of the Northeast. The Bear and the Chipmunk What happens when the mightiest creature in the forest matches wits with one of the smallest? This comes from an old Cherokee legend Issun Boshi Come to the other side of the world and meet someone who proves that size is not what makes you mighty. The Story Tree A new telling of an old Lakota legend. This may be how it all began. After you have heard the tales, it will be your chance to sit under the story tree and tell the stories the way you want people to hear them. I have been telling stories to children and to adults for over ten years People from California to Oklahoma to New York have laughed shivered and celebrated with me, my tales and my wooden flute. You may have seen me at the Hudson Clearwater Festival, Pittsburghs Three Rivers Festival, Albanys Riverway Festival, or at the National Storytelling Conference. You may have met me at your school, your library or your Community Center. If we havent met yet, enjoy listening to these stories and we are bound to meet-up soon.
