A mixture of New Age/Contemporary Jazz assembled for the instrumental listener. This CD was created for individuals to envision different times and realities within their consciousness. 6 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, NEW AGE: New Age Details: Frank Danna: A musician and composer of music for 25 years Frank is originally from upstate New York. Frank is now living in Phoenix, Arizona. Frank has arranged a combination of New Age and Contemporary Jazz with his new CD "Dimensional Visions". This CD is a different approach for the instrumental listener. The concept behind the CD is to put the listener in a different state of mind or consciousness. The titles of the arrangements are meant to portray a time, place or event that is unique in the mind of the listener. The music is an extension of this unique thought as it takes the listener to a special place. Frank states that "Music is a way that people put their thoughts in a different reality of time and space. The experience of opening your mind to have visions of the past, present, or future is all part of "Dimensional Visions". In the future you will be able to purchase CD'S encoded in DOLBY DIGITAL 5.1 for your ultimate listening pleasure. "Dimensional Visions" will be coming out with a new CD in about six months. This CD will cater even more to the New Age listener. The website for "Dimensional Visions" is under construction at this time. After it is completed you may obtain more information about upcoming projects, and individual musicians who performed on the CD. Frank has been providing guitar instruction within the Phoenix metro area for the last ten years and is currently active and performing in the Phoenix nightclub circuit playing various types of music. Live performances have not been scheduled for "Dimensional Visions" at this time, but stay tuned for future announcements.
