His songs are brilliantly crafted and his playing is virtuoso. Born in the small beach town of Santa Cruz, Frankie Moreno has been performing since the young age of 3. Since his early beginning as a professional entertainer, Frankie has performed for thousands. At each and every performance Frankie delivers the goods and never fails to leave an audience completely astounded. In recent years Frankie's popularity has escalated around the country and his record sales continue to grow. A prolific songwriter who has penned literally hundreds of songs, Moreno has produced and released 6 albums under his own name. Frankie's current live lineup of the Frankie Moreno Band has brought the man and his music to a new level of intensity that is stunning to new and longtime fans alike. With a serious edge, Frankie's new album has been aptly described as a healthy mix between Dave Matthews Band, Lenny Kravitz and the Red Hot Chili Peppers. The Frankie Moreno Band keeps a busy live performance schedule, performing across the country at venues such as the House of Blues, Freemont Street Experience, the Stratosphere, the Hard Rock, and the Catalyst. With Frankie, each night's performance is always guaranteed to be a new experience and never a repeat from a limited bag of tricks. Fans continue to come to shows to see what he'll do next. Without exception the entertainment is at maximum level and the audience is both amazed and satisfied. Frankie Moreno is a man on a mission, ordained with the purpose of putting the "fun" back into popular music. Unlike any other artist on earth, as a performer, songwriter and musician, Frankie is truly equipped to fulfill that mission. Answering the call, the converts are steadily coming in.
