Come; sit among the notes, drink of the soul and be edified. Yall aint ready Meet and get to know "Godchild" BIO/VISION: Born and raised in Naptown (Indianapolis, In.) Jas (Pronounced Jace) grew up within a collage of musical influences with that of the church being most prominent. This flavor of artistic diversity molded him to exhibit a vibe and style that currently solely belongs to Godchild. Somewhere between the Gospel greats of the Winans, Fred Hammond and Commissioned and the influences of such artists as Stevie Wonder and Sade, Godchild was born. He went on to join a group based out of California (Emaj); eventually, he left the group to rededicate his life and follow the vision of his Lord and Savior. He took this time to grow spiritually as an artist, songwriter and producer, while simultaneously performing at various showcases and television venues and sharing the stage with Artist such as Yolanda Adams and Mary Mary. I thank God for providing me the ability, talent and gift to develop my own material and praise Him in my own unique way I see myself as more than just an artist, but I will always love performing Godchild has received airplay from local radio stations, performed live tapings of various local television programs and is frequently requested to minister his unique style at various locations. He most recently won the soloist competition during the Exalting Him talent competition, which was televised on the Trinity Broadcasting Network (TBN) where judges expressed the following: You have the total package, I see all ages listening to you, Im ready to buy a CD right now (Nicole C. Mullen), Nobody is doing it like youre doing it and You are amazing, just to name a few quotes. I think my music forces the "religious folk to abandon that Spirit of Religion and focus on God as well as the reality of what God is doing and what God has done with them and with my sound. I know Im different, but hey. Im just real with it. This attitude towards his ministry has caused many to call what Godchild does The Gospel of Realism as described during a critique of his music at the Virginia Music Symposium. Whether singing his music or writing it, Godchild is sure to touch you as he churns out song after song of his Urban, Gospel, Jazz, Funk, Hip Hop, Neo Soul Melodies.
