The debut album from London-based singer songwriter James Daley, featuring Age of Innocence and 8 other touching new tracks with a conscience. This stunning 9 track acoustic album is filled with creative, emotional and melodic songs. 9 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: Organic, upfront and true energy delivered with a quirky voice and very soothing, fresh guitar playing. James is a new face exploding onto the music scene. The singer-songwriter has been touching people through his music from a young age. His music is a diverse blend of acoustic-rock guitar playing, a 'power ballad' voice and original, poetic song writing. This combined with his edge and conviction has emerged a bright light on the scene attracting more and more interest. Live Performance Reviews Steve Lamacq's 'Radio One - One Music': Hurry, get those lighters in the air! Fans of the soft rock ballad may well find that James' music sets their world on fire. James makes no bones when it comes to describing his music. "I'd describe it as soft rock ballads with balls". He's performed in London venues and he's sending his music in because he wants to, not unreasonably, share his music with others. He rates his success as getting this album together and good live shows. Dom Email dom at fsp-ent dot co dot uk Comments Hi James! Your show at Sound Unsigned (Annual Best Of) was stunning. Alone with his guitar, he was filling out the whole space and looking good! Great guitar playing, great stage presence, great songs, great voice! Keep rocking James!
