Kamaria has dreamed of becoming a singer. Her career spotlight began at the early age of 2 when she was at the home of her grandmother. Kamarias singing talent was discovered that day while her uncle was playing the piano and she began singing along with his piano playing of the song Twinkle, Twinkle little star. By the time Kamaria was 7, she was already singing like a pro on stage at an event on Pope Air Force Base. Kamaria would go on to do cover songs of the group the Jets and and the late Tejano singer, Selena while she was in elementary school. At the age of 13 her first song was released in September 2003, titled On That Day In September. It was a song that featured 6 other young artist, which was a contribute to those who lost their life during the 911 attack. At age 14 Kamaria recorded her first album under the Dirt Cheap Label, titled, Kamaria. This album was not released due to financial problems with the label. Because Kamaria did so much performing while under the label it was making her popular with the Virginia music scene that she got approached by 3 other record labels. Actually, she declined all 3 offers which was a very bold move on her part and the part of her parents. Instead of signing with another label she would go on sing the National Anthem for the Richmond Riverdogs and the Richmond Renegades home games at the Richmond Coliseum. This exposure to the world of entertainment helped to inspire Kamaria to work on her own solo album project independently and with all the prosperous connections she is on her way to completing her 2nd album. Kamaria and her family have been lived in Wiesbaden, Germany since June 2005 to July 2007. Since moving to Wiesbaden she has had several offers to produce an album with different labels and producers. She and her family have once again decline the offers and have since then set out to structure her career in a different manner. She has had the pleasure of entertaining and wowing the people in the Wiesbaden, Mannheim, Frankfurt, Russelsheim and Neustadt, Central Virginia, New York City, Beverly Hills, CA communities. Currently Kamaria is in Alamosa, Colorado, working on her craft and her love, Music. She will be relocating to Virginia in the Spring of 2008. Hey if you are in the area come to one of her shows.
