Details: Mark Shaw is a lifelong lover of music. He was just a tot when he with his family, moved to Chicago, from Miami, Florida. As a small child, Mark would sing along with his favorite tunes, whenever they played on the radio. Mark's mother was then, and still is, a big fan of Sam Cooke's music. Mark also enjoyed the unique, soul stirring singing style of Mr. Cooke. It was not long before those who heard Mark sing, realized that he was quite good at it. He was actually starting to sound like Sam! Over the years, Mark continued to sing and emulate his Idol. Today, Mark is performing in shows, where the audiences are amazed at his ability to imitate the great Sam Cooke. Mark would often say, "Sam will never be duplicated. I merely want to keep Sam's legacy and music alive. I want this new generation of youngsters to know the great talent that was 'Sam Cooke'." This track is from the album, "Remembering Sam."
