Part John Hughes, part of the "HighLife" with a little bit of the "LowLife" thrown in for good measure. New Wave idolism with a hardcore delivery. 6 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: Emo Details: "One Of The Loudest Tragedies Ever Heard..." is from Los Angeles, California USA. A production team that started in early 2000 was transformed into a Rock Band by the winter of 2002. "New wave style and balls out rock energy" are words that have been used to describe OOTLTEH's focus. Live shows demanding and studio work thorough, "One Of The Loudest Tragedies Ever Heard..." takes you one step beyond where most music stops. "One Of The Loudest Tragedies Ever Heard..." as a rock band consists of 4 members: Johnny Fisher, Natalia Bolanos, Mark Zarnow, and Claudia. All 4 have come together with very different backgrounds, histories and accomplishments. - Johnny Fisher (vocals / guitar): Sometimes referred to AS "One Of The Loudest Tragedies Ever Heard...", Johnny comes from a very wide musical background and is the driving force behind OOTLTEH. As a producer, re-mixer, writer and member of a rock band, all things touched by LT have a vague similarity. From his production of "Yeah Yeah Yeah's" singles (YES NEW YORK / Vice Records) to re-mixing a wide variety of artists from BRMC to the Velvet Underground, all things will be worked on until they have the "Loudest Tragedy" sound.... - Mark Zarnow (guitars): A phenomenal guitar player, sidelining as a fashion photographer, Marks photographs have appeared in countless fashion magazines. - Natalia Bolanos (bass guitar): Having toured extensively in the US UK in the "Halo Friendlies," including 3 stints on the Warped Tour, playing national tours with such acts as Rancid, Good Charlotte and MXPX, as well as earning a gold record for the "Halo's" contribution to the "Freaky Friday" soundtrack, Natalia plays bass in OOTLTEH like a Columbian drug lord. - Claudia (drums): "Former Lo-Ball / Jack Off Jill drummer, Claudia is an absolute terror behind a drum kit in One Of The Loudest Tragedies Ever Heard..." "One Of The Loudest Tragedies Ever Heard..." is currently supporting the Skin EP while recording a follow up Full Length, as well as hosting and DJing "Loudest Tragedy Radio" on Little Radio (87.9fm) in Los Angeles, from 9pm - 12am every Tuesday night. Full-Length record due Feb 2005.
