Born in South London as one of 5 children who were all musical. At the age of 11, he was introduced to a London based reggae sound system with his cousins called genius; this was his first real taste of the music business. Yomi MCd whilst his cousin sang the tracks, as time progressed, he felt more comfortable singing rather than MCing and started developing his vocals at age 13. By 15 years of age Yomi was on his first project for 6 months singing vocals in a recording studio, since then he sang for various producers and started writing his own music, this varied from dancehall to RnB, through session work more and more experienced was gained. At the age of 20 Yomi got his first chance to perform his own music live on stage in London at small events to gain confidence, this was well received by the London crowd, shortly afterwards he to relocate to Bristol to work with the youth and his musical talent came with him, this led him to perform on stage as a support act for so solid crew and dru hill. Yomis name started to build within the South West and shortly after a few local gigs was introduced to Mark AKA Mixmaster M of Blackstory Entertainment, by a mutual friend and recorded a track called Daydreams, which he wrote myself. With this track Yomi completed a mini tour around Bristol to see if it was get a positive response, the tour was really successful and to further develop his career Yomi went into training his mind, body and soul, so that he could hit the music industry with a bang. This involved working with producers in London as well as Bristol and finding my singing style. As time progressed Yomi started getting various project offers and is now currently working with Blackstory Entertainment, promoting another track also written by him called Fantasy. Yomi loves being a solo artist in the limelight. He loves performing and entertaining the fans, it gives him a buzz. The release of the Fantasy track was decided upon when the kind of music currently being listened to at the moment, it will fit right in. Yomi has already performed this track on stage and he said it went down a storm, the crowd loved it. The name Fantasy is on the same theme as Daydreams the previous track that he wrote. Yomi is constantly influenced by music artists on a daily basis, but the ones that really stick in his mind are: Bob Marley he grew up listening to and loving his voice Lionel Ritchie loves the style of songs Lionel has performed Sanchez Yomi admires his voice Craig David he respects the style of songs he performs, as this is unique LL Cool J Yomi says his game is tight, he has the full package, not just music everything and Ms Dynamite she represents a positive, female, black role model for others in England Yomis favourite music styles are dancehall, RnB, Hip-hop and the Spoken word. He would describe his voice as stylish and cool. Singing makes him feel alive, like an emotional Rolla coaster (up and down), which makes him want to succeed even more in the music business, because he says I will not be defeated, Ill keep going for as long as it takes. Music makes him feel sooo good about himself; it fills a void that nothing else can. Yomi sees his future as a success in the music/entertainment industry, a role model that young people can look up to and have a no.1 in the charts. He would love to work alongside Kano, Ciara and Snoop Dog to name but a few.
