Instant Video Marketing Secrets As you may know submitting videos to video-sharing sites is an effective way to get traffic to your web site. And you likely know that using videos on your sales letter will usually increase your conversion rates. Plus, you might know that you can increase your list by getting people to opt-in to see your videos. But the trick is actually getting people to go watch your videos. That's what this report will help you do. It will give you many different ways to persuade people to view your free videos. There's no point in offering a free video if no one will actually view it.
