A collection of the illest rhymes and pure entertainment created to you make people say, "Damn, that's a bad ass white boy." 20 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: White-Boy Rap Details: I've been rapping since I was in the 5th grade when I won a rap contest in the mall. Over the years I'm made a ton of different raps. I finally decided to record them. I chose my favorite and the most entertaining raps and put together my album called The Full Effect. About half the beats on the album I created myself. The rest are instrumental beats. In college I use to pass out my CD for free to friends, people I worked with, and people I met at parties. It got to a point where people knew me all around town from hearing my CD. Everywhere I went people requested me to "bust a rap" or a freestyle flow. Fans used to hook me up with free stuff at restaurants and bars for a copy of the album. After a while enough people told me I should sell it on the internet, so I decided I'd give it a shot.
