Creative song writing blends with inventive composition - described as "Alt Folk Blues Rock" 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, ROCK: Acoustic Details: A Bay Area native, guitarist, singer and songwriter Bryan Harrison has built a strong reputation within the San Francisco music community. Established as a diverse song writer, drawing from his own life experience as well as from issues of the day, Bryan shapes his poignant material with musical colors that draw his fans in. An adept guitar player, he more often than not chooses song structure and chord progressions that go beyond the typical singer/songwriter. His warm vocals add a richness that makes his songs even more meaningful. He performs as a solo artist on occasion, but most frequently with the Bryan Harrison Band. BHB deliver a full tight sound that rocks the house. Acoustic and electric guitars, harmony vocals, harmonica and mandolin all give texture and richness to a solid rhythm section that drives it all home. Described as "Alt Folk Blues Rock", BHB is a band not to be missed. Currently booking festival shows, Bryan has just released a 14 song solo-produced studio CD, mastered at Last Stop Records, called "Raw Tracks". The band is currently working at Last Stop Records on the first BHB studio produced record, due out later this year.
