SPOKEN WORD: With Music, POP: Quirky Details: A review of "Blue Light Love" by G-Man, appearing in the North Hollywood Reporter in May of 2003 Writer and chanteuse Leslie Waller (founder and CEO of lamusicproductions.com) leads this delightful excursion into the heights of human darkness and the depths of soulful light. Sound contradictory? Well, duh. Songs, spoken word, ambient rock, and a farewell to artistic convention are the order of the day. Or night. This is one of those peel-back-the-layers-of-meaning types of albums, with each listen taking you further into your own heart and further out beyond the normal reaches of your mind. Exquisitely written and performed, "Blue Light Love" by Incantare is a masterstroke. (Oh, yes, "incantare" means to recite magical words," and there simply could not be a more appropriate name for this very lovely project.  About
