Good Texas music based on the sounds that made AM radio king in the 40's through the early 60's with elements of swing, western swing, vintage country, honky-tonk and rock 'n roll. 16 MP3 Songs

COUNTRY: Western Swing, COUNTRY: Traditional Country Details: For the last ten of his forty-five years as a performing musician, Jim Stringer has been living, working and, as always, honing his craft as guitarist, producer, and singer-songwriter, in the competitive but nurturing environment of Austin, Texas. During that time, his guitar has been heard with more than 25 Austin artist, live and on record, including Ted Roddy, Wayne Hancock, Roger Wallace, Marti Brom, Susanna Van Tassel, Karen Poston and many others. His own AM Band has toured widely, this past summer being a featured act at Twangfest 8, and at festivals in Europe. A busy producer for Austin artists, Jim produced the now legendary "Travis County Pickin'" for HighTone. TCP has become a standard in the libraries of guitar enthusiasts.
