Smart, sassy, driving female, acoustic Americana folk rock 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Ani, ROCK: Americana Details: Voted "Best Album" in the Female Vocals category of the 1999 Boulder Community Media awards, "Songs From The Ether" also garnered a review in CMJ's A&R Pick column. Acoustic singer songwriter Libby Kirkpatrick presents her recording debut with this self-recorded award-winning solo acoustic (with some cello) demo. Featuring "Crying" "Proprioception" "Jupiter" "Universe" and "What Is That?" "...this is very strong material. Libby Kirkpatrick is good - at times very very good, and her voice and songs are solid assets which an album stripped this bare can prove beyond a shadow of a doubt" - Music Reviews Quarterly, Fall 1999 "Libby Kirkpatrick's self-released debut "Songs From The Ether" speaks effortlessly to any romantic...As a whole, the album has an honest, sorehearted tone...recommended! - Brenda Linguiti, CMJ New Music Report "A R Pick"
