Dr. Mal Williams Dr. Mal Williams was born December 7, 1961 in Greene County, North Carolina and received his education in the Greene County School System. At the age of 7 he accepted the Lord in his life. He also became interested in music very early in life and wrote his first song at the age of eight. Throughout school, music remained a major interest as he participated in the radio club and played the "National Anthem" solo for many school events. Continuning his education at Fayetteville State University, Dr. Williams fully recognized the call of the Lord on his life. He has since then dedicated his Life and talents unto the Lord. Dr. Williams is a Graduate of Central Christian University in Arkansas with a BA Degree, Dr. Williams received an Associate Degree from United Theological Seminary in Flordia and has obtained a Doctorate in Christian Education, an honorary Doctorate in Sacred Music from Higher Learning Institute in Richmond, Virginia and a Doctorate in Ministry from Central Christian in Lexington NC. He is a licensed and ordained minister who has been preaching and singing the gospel for over 20 years and has assisted in establishing many ministries. Dr. Williams has ministered in most of the 50 states, Canada, Trinidad, Germany, Haiti, various parts of Europe( Luxembourg , France) and Mexico. With the aid of crusades and concerts from 1990-2001) He has ministered to over one million people. To his credit Dr. Williams has professionally recorded eight albums and produced music for many other artist." Dr. Williams has been featured on "Inspiration Across America" nine national radio programs and many television programs. Dr. Williams believes that success begins with right priorities, service to God, your family and lastly your community, Dr. Williams married his high school sweetheart Mary Williams August 22, 1981 who works faithfully at his side. They are the proud parents of two beautiful children Charmaine Laqual Williams and Malkarska Jeremy Williams Jr. Dr. Williams received a vision from God some fifteen years ago, which directed him to establish a church. While He continued working under Bishop Paul A. Thomas, for 14 years, He served as Evangelist, Minister of Music and Armor Bearer. Dr. Williams is a member of United Council of Christian Churches. He is the Pastor and founder of United Fellowship Assembly in Nashville, N.C. which was established in 1995. Dr. Williams is also the President of Mal Williams Ministries in Nashville, North Carolina. ----- ARTIST PROFILE : MAL

WILLIAMS "THE BEST IS YET TO COME" CUTS FROM THE CD BY CATERGORY:(Contemporary) "The Best Yet To Come". Pray Until Something Happen (Push), Think of His Goodness, Mean It From Your Heart, these upbeat, soul feeling songs are filled with words of endurance and perseverance to let you know that while you are faced with trials and tribulations you can still endure! (Traditional) I've Got What I Needed From The Lord, "Leap For JOY", These toe tapping, hand clapping songs are for those who just want to lift up Jesus the old fashion way. But, there is still a sense of celebration and joy! (Praise and Worship) Lord. You Reiqn, No Other God, these anointed songs that will bring you directly to the throne of God, for those who love to worship God for who He is, you will enjoy these songs. (Inspirational) I Need A BreakthrouQh, It's All About The Lord, Hear My Voice, are powerful, spirit filled songs to help those who need encouragement, and to let you know if God said it, he will bring it to pass, if He did it once, He will do it again.
