Afrikan Roots Reggae incorporating the sounds of, Jamaica, Zimbabwe, Malawi and Europe, the ingredients that make Pax Nindi Harare Dread the undisputed Afrikan Roots Reggae master. Album marks Harare Dread's 20 years in the business away from home. 15 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, WORLD: African Details: PAX NINDI Harare Dread and his music get stronger every year! Early Days is an album that marks his early days in Europe since he left his homelands in 1985. It is supported by an international tour covering UK, USA, Europe and Afrika. Second leg of the tour starts with a 2005 tour launch at the National Theatre in London on 12th July 2005 Afrikan Roots Reggae lives on!. "Early Days" album features compilations of Harare Dread's early recordings and some of his songs, which were not allowed on Zimbabwean airwaves due to their controversial lyrics e.g. Innervision and Wrong Road. This album sung in Shona, Chewa and English languages has strong African and reggae music vibes with a lot of dub mixes and extended dub on the vocal songs. Wrong Road and Original Style are given to you in full with no censorship on the words or music. With lyrics in Shona and Chewa backed by the rhythms of Jamaica, Zimbabwe, Malawi and UK the man still remains the unchallenged master of live roots Afrikan reggae. Harare Dread's live performance is high energy dubbed by his critics as a sight not to miss. Within his indoor live concerts Harare Dread translates the Afrikan language through the use of his Dubvision setup on giant screens which has earned him the title 'The World's first Dub VJ' as witnessed at Jah Shaka sessions, Glastonbury, Kolkata Festival and Coronet Theatre.
