Modern Country with Southern Rock edge. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, ROCK: Rockabilly Details: Renegade Rail is a band from Sedalia Missouri. This band is a six piece band ranging from ages seventeen up to mid-forties. The band has been together about four years and has just pursued writing in the last year. The bands first full length album DERAILED was released in January of 2004. They have already had major radio play throughout the state of Missouri with their first single release Heroes. The biggest station being Q-104 in Kansas City. The single has also been played via military in the middle east as well. This song carries a huge impact on who the true heroes in life really are! The song has done so well that they will be performing in our nations capitol this Veterans Day Nov. 11th 2004 beside the Lincoln Memorial for the U.S. Military. The band has also been invited to play the Country Fever Festival in Pryor, Oklahoma with the likes of Hank Jr, Keith Urban, Wynonna Judd, Martina McBride and many, many others. Their style is all their own but based on true traditional outlaw country and southern rock. They write about the real things in life and strive to be energetic in their live shows. Most of all they just love to perform! God, Family, Music, It's that simple....
