Wynueco Washington was born in Columbus, Ohio on July 27, 1974 with music in his heart and soul. His mother a pianist and singer, and his father, a gospel music recording artist, are directly responsible for his music lineage. Because of his mothers love for saxophonist Kenny G, she encouraged him to start playing the sax at age 13. By the time he graduated from high school, his proficiency on the instrument excelled, providing him an opportunity to obtain a full music scholarship to attend Central State University. After college he enlisted to serve his country in the United States Army. With music still in his heart and soul and Gods favor on his life, he was selected to join the United States Army Soldier Show. The Soldier Show is an off Broadway style variety show put on by Army Entertainment, traveling around the world performing at various military installations. After his travels with the show were complete he received orders to attend the US Armed Forces School of Music at the Naval Amphibious Base Little Creek, Virginia Beach, Virginia. In February of 2003 he was deployed to Kuwait City, Kuwait to fight in the Iraq war and was later moved north to Mosul, Iraq. During intense battle, while trying to rescue Iraqi Citizens, he sustained a severe wound which required him to be relocated state side. Although he had to return back home his family was elated to see him again. Wynueco Washington has been married for 11 years to Toya Washington. From this union they have five beautiful children. After receiving an Honorable Discharge from the US Armed forces, along with eight and a half years of distinguished service, he was finally able to pursue his appointed ministry full time. God was preparing him through these life experiences to minister through the anointed sounds of his saxophone. God has placed him on stages with some Gospel Music Greats. Artist in the likes of: Pastor John P. Kee, Pastor Rance Allen, Dorinda Clark Cole, Karen Clark Sheard, Kierra KIKI Sheard, Smokie Norful, Mississippi Mass Choir,

Shea Norman, and Celebration of Praise on CBN. He has recently shared the stage with Tonex, Hezekiah Walker LFC, Martha Munizzi, J. Moss, 21:03, Ricky Dillard New G, Donald Lawrence, Howard Hewitt, Hezekiah Walker and Love Fellowship, Benjamin Cone Worship, Monique Walker, Keith Law, Tramaine Hawkins, Tye Tribett GA, The Legendary Caravans, Dathan Thigpen, Darryl Pennin, LeShelle Griffin, Leonard Scott, the Sax Extrodinaire Bernard Johnson and many many more. Wynueco has also had thee opportunity to open for the Gospel Superfest giving tribute to Black History Month. He has currently signed as a new contract artist with Premiering Record Label Equilibrium Records, a subsidiary of Equilibrium Music Group. Being the loving and caring man that he is Wynueco has decided that the same service he gave to the military, he will give to God through his ministry in music. He is dedicated to serving God, serving his family playing his music for God.
