I had heard on different forums and from several Internet Marketers that blogging was a great way to make money. So I decided to start my own blog. I really liked writing on my blog. I also enjoyed trying different things with my blog. But I had two problems. The first problem was that I wasnt making any money. Sure, I had a few dollars trickling in every month but it wasn't even enough to buy myself lunch. The other problem was that I didn't have enough visitors. There were days when I'd have hundreds of readers but most days my visitors were well below 100. And the visitors I did get weren't signing up on my list because they weren't targeted. So I decided to buy an eBook on how to monetize my blog. When that didn't work I bought another eBook. And then I bought a course on designing my blog, another eBook, and then I think you get the point... All told I spent more money than I care to admit. And still I wasn't making any real money from my blog. I was writing blogs. It was on the Internet. But nobody was reading what I was writing. I really was blogging in the dark. Then one day a light bulb went off in my head. I decided to stop relying on informational products and to take things into my own hands. And that's just what I did. I couldn't believe the secrets I discovered... Armed with these secrets I started a new blog and 2 weeks later I flipped that blog for an even $1500. Then with the confidence I gained from finally making real money, I went ahead and created more blogs. Now, I have several successful blogs that pull in really good money every single month. And now you can discover the secrets I discovered when you buy Blogging for Profits. But I'm sure you've run into plenty of products that sound great but don't deliver anything of value to you. How You Can Discover the Power of Blogging for Profits Everyday more and more people are reading blogs. It's a phenomenon that people in the print media wish never happened. Blogging is taking the place of the mainstream media and it is causing newspapers throughout the world to struggle to make ends meet. Blogs are influencing political races. Blogs are taking the lead in reporting entertainment and sports news. And blogs are becoming a key player in all the major fields too. That's why this is the time for you to make your blog into a profit machine. There are literally millions upon millions of people throughout the world who are reading blogs and you can (and will) tap into those millions of people. But there is another reason to blog too. Because of the nature of blogs updated frequently, usually contain valuable information, easy and fun to read, etc. they rank very well with the search engines. That means your blog can show-up when people search for popular keywords and keyword phrases. And Blogging for Profits will show you how to make this happen! So how much do you have to pay for this one of a kind product? How much do you have to pay for 6 Workshop Booklets and an email mentorship? Well, many new Internet Marketers, who realize the importance of mentoring, willingly and eagerly pay at least $50 every month to be part of a mentoring program. And people who want to make something happen with their blog would happily pay $77, $97, or even $197 if they knew they'd get the information to make their blog a major player online. They'd probably pay even more than $197 if it meant making good money with their blog. But if you buy Blogging for Profits right now, all you have to pay is $47.97. Less than $50 for both the Workshop Booklets and the email mentoring. Now, I could tell you that I was going to charge you $97 or even $197 but I won't lie to you. Honestly, those who've seen this course told me I could charge at least those amounts, some even said I should charge $97 for just the booklets and then I should upsell you on the email mentoring for $147. But I want this to be affordable. If you're looking to make real money with a blog then that means you haven't made any real money yet. And that probably means you simply can't afford to pay a lot of money for my product. So I am determined to give everyone a chance to discover how easy and fast it is to set-up profitable blogs.
