This is what they have to say about us: "Atlas Soul's blend of jazz, funk and Middle-Eastern/Arabic grooves is a fascinating sonic stew that will catch any listener's ear. This is their second appearance on our CD's compilation. We like'em, and you will too". Global Rhythm Magazine Hello and greetings, Jacques from Atlas Soul here. We are very excited for having two of the songs from MABROUKA featured in two different compilations from Global Rhythm magazine. Mabrouka means: Blessings and/or Lucky Charm and/or Incantations! Here is some background about the music and the songs: Lamour en banlieue (love in the suburbs) This is French hip-pop with a twist! This is an urban and suburban (banlieue) love story. Check out the French rap (if you speak French) lyrics written by the talented Johann Sarton aka 95Star. Performed by Jacques Pardo and Nadwa Al Rifai. Nadwa wrote the Arabic lyrics as well. Sole (Sun) This song is a 6/8 groove in a Shaabi-Jazz style but in Italian!!! Lyrics and performed by Angela Rossi. This song is about the emigrants and emigration but in a poetic way Passa La Vida This one is a funky nicely spiced Salsa Lyrics and performed by Alan Perez This song is about love and the flow of life Quiereme y Veras This is a love song that feature acoustic guitar, oud, bari sax, trombone on a touching Latin ballad melody Lyrics and performed by Alan Perez Angelomio This is a combination of a Ballad and a Drum Bass groove. Lyrics and performed by Angela Rossi. Music and production by Jacques Pardo and Atlas Soul Write a review!
