Moody acoustic pop with sweet falsetto 5 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: There's a distinctive quality that defines the work of flezaDoza - a singer/songwriter whose influences range from a wide spectrum of musical styles. One could put him along the lines of an Elvis Costello, Steve Winwood, Sting or Cat Stevens. The songs are a unique and vibrant fusion of rock, pop and folk with energetic vocals acting as a paintbrush upon the sonic canvas that unfolds. He creates quite a stir everywhere playing regularly with his band to enthusiastic audiences. As he branches out to the rest of the world, the rest of the world is eager to listen. Audiences respond strongly to his live shows, and new fans are reeled in every time. Having performed at the Songwriters Hall of Fame showcases, and being mentioned in Billboard Magazine for an outstanding SESAC showcase, he's gained recognition in the industry as a crafted and one-of-a-kind songwriter. As Eric Shea of Listendescribes - "flezaDoza's melancholy songs are widened by his elastic and soulful vocals. His fervent acoustic guitar playing grows more passionate with the dynamic layering of a warm bass and brush-on-the-snare drumming". "Dinner in Black and White" is definitely one of flezaDoza's finest releases. Enjoy!
