Rock in the style of Journey and Van Halen; beautiful ballads, biblically inspired lyrics 11 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: "If everybody had to be the same, a lot of kids just would n't get saved. We reach out to those you can't, everybody's got a part in God's plan" These are some of the lyrics in one of MALACHI'S songs that describe how they feel about spreading the good news of Jesus Christ. MALACHI is a Christian rock group based out the East Tennessee area, north of Knoxville. Their talent, professionalism, and dedication to spreading the word of God as a band is very well known among Christian musicians and fans in their area. Their testimony, message, and dedication to Jesus Christ is evident through their everyday living as they walk hand in hand with Him. They utilize what God has given them to reach out to that troubled teen or that over the edge adult who is at his or hers last strand, trying to help them turn their life around by planting a seed and helping them let God take controls of their lives. They pray that the Lord Jesus Christ will allow them to be the evidence of His grace and what it has done for them, so that it might be a witness to others. Being unique and very original in their music, MALACHI has been compared to great bands such as Journey, Petra, DC Talk, Creed and the Newsboys. Their music is vast in guitar work, rock solid drumming, vocal harmonies, and good arrangements. Hard rocking grooves like SHINE to haunting ballads such as NEVERMORE, and , NO SAD GOODBYES.
