_____ (PRWEB) October 5, 2004 --

Mick Zengel, a Duluth, MN native and musician plays the rhythm guitar, mandolin, dulcimer, harmonica, and bodhran. Mick incorporates these and other live instrumentation into all of the tracks he produces. His music has been hailed "The Water of Life, and The Whiskey of Passion"! FOURTH STREET BLUE the 4th CD release in 14 months and Mick Zengel has kept his loyal fans well satisfied. Prior albums include IN THE WAY, TWO OLD DOGS, and CELTIC COLLECTION all released in 2003 respectively. This latest being his highly anticipated FOURTH STREET BLUE album. From the new hit single "North Star Bar Tragedy" so powerful, it never fails to bring a tear, to "Little Bit of Me" written for Mick's grandson, a perfect portrait of a joyful energetic boy - of any age. Mick has a rare talent for detailing the profound truths of everyday life and that is reflected in all 11 tracks of the new album. "Credit careful and meticulous ears in the studio for creating a collection such as this one. Zengel's songwriting is reflective and intelligent, bringing a soulful experience and something original to a weary music market..."
