Biography I have been a Child Care Worker for the past 17 years working with children as young as babies to 12 year olds. Currently I work full-time at St. Morris Community Child Care Centre, Adelaide, Australia, and have been employed there for 7 years. As part of my training I have learnt about and implemented the SACSA Framework (South Australian Curriculum Standards and Accountability) and have been through QIAS (Quality Improvement and Accreditation System) on 3 occasions. Both incorporate principles and objectives such as, respectful and protective behaviors, emotional well- being, mathematical concepts, healthy eating, good friendships, sharing and caring. My musical history spans back 23 years, guitar and vocals my first instruments, with some experience with bass guitar, drums and piano. Throughout the years I have played many genres of music including Rock N Roll, Reggae, Swing, Soul, Blues and Rock. My biggest influence being 50s and 60s Rock N Roll. This along with the training and experience I have gained in Child Care has led me to record my Debut childrens album Rockin Rocky In The Jungle. It has been a wonderful journey, one that has enhanced my career as a singer/songwriter, musician, caregiver and performer. I am one of the founding members of Street Talk, who have been entertaining audiences in Adelaide for the past 17 years (and still going strong), playing music from the fifties to current day. Since releasing my childrens album Rockin Rocky In The Jungle I have put together a cast of performers that have bought to life The Rockin Rocky Show, a childrens interactive dance show. In the past 2 years The Rockin Rocky show has performed almost a 100 shows at Kindergartens, Pre-Schools, Child Care Centres, Schools, The Childrens Hospital and public events such as: The Civic Park Spectacular (2005), 102.3 Family Festival (2006), Bakehouse Theartre (2006),

The Almond Blossom Festival (2006) and The Pt. Augusta Festival (2006) In July, 2008 I began recording my second children's album. I anticipate the album will be finished in 12 months.
