A rap/pop/jazz/dance blend that redefines some genres while inventing a few others. 14 MP3 Songs
URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, POP: Quirky Details: Sassure is a songwriter/musician who specializes in pop, rap, jazz, dance, rock, and a combination of all five -- sometimes in the same song. Intent on revolutionizing the basic song model as we know it with his "linear song" structure, Sassure is also a strong supporter of the Digital Music Revolution, and he refers to it in a few of his compositions. "This revolution," he says, "will not only change the face of music as we know it and listen to it -- it will change the music business too."
