If you're into intelligent alternative piano-based pop-rock that breaks from the mould, you must check this out. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, POP: Piano Details: Stavia was born and raised in Kenya, and started writing songs on piano and guitar as a child. Her lyrics are poetic without being pretentious, always entertaining, thought provoking and will strike a chord with anyone who has lived and loved. She has been likened to Dido, Janis Ian and Carly Simon, and her songs have been featured on national BBC radio in the UK, One of her songs has been used on a BBC soundtrack. Stavia plays piano and guitar and the band consists of Grant Jamieson on guitar, Rob Fergus Smith on drums, and Andy Coughlan on bass. This is the 2006 version of the album and has been remastered by John Brough (Queen, Cat Stevens, Joss Stone, Beautiful south) who has also produced 4 of the tracks. Stavia has two other albums - 'The Way You Are' - and 'Forbidden fruit' - also available on CdBaby
