BLUES: Rockin' Blues, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Sandra 'SaNa' Foster is a bassist extraordinaire. She bought her first bass at age 49, and within six months she was playing on stage. She quickly earned the reputation of having the "best bottom". SaNa is the leader of the SaNa Blue Band; a dance band. The band plays for weddings, graduations, corporate gatherings, public schools, universities, festivals, night clubs and private parties. The band's priority is to get you dancing and having a good time. Their song list includes blues, top 40, old school, reggae, and latin. The SaNa Band won the 1999 Blues Band Search in Atlanta Georgia. The Band opened for Clarence Carter at the 1999 Alabama Blues Lover's Festival in Birmingham. Along with Deacon Bluz, SaNa has opened for The Uppidy Blues Women, Buckwheat Zydeco, and the New Orleans Preservation Hall Jazz Band. SaNa has supplied the bass "bottom" in performances with Chick Willis, Deacon Bluz, Frankie Lee and the Native Sons, Tony Cook, Ronald "Rock" Lester, Sammy Blue, Larry Griffin, Lil Joe Burton, Pink Anderson, B Flat, Clyde Storz, Zip Code, and many more. SaNa performs locally in Atlanta Georgia and throughout the United States. In Atlanta, SaNa has performed at The Variety Playhouse, The Trolley Barn, The Rib Shack, The Blue Pig, Darwin's, Fat Matt's, Pal's Lounge, Popper's, Hairstons, Club Savoy, The Jungle Room, Comfort Inn, Mellow Mushroom, The Atrium, Sweet Melissa's, Fuzzy's, Rooster's, Daddy D's, Hairston's, Peppers, The Blue Raccoon, Atlanta Public Schools, Clark Atlanta University, Spelman College, Georgia State University, Grant Park, The Olympic Village, Auburn Avenue, and The Waterworks Park.
