This album is composed of Christmas classics in an old sound with a modern twist. 8 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: The passion and talent of singer-songwriter Trevor Davis are not to be missed. He seamlessly combines pop, rock, and soul to deliver well-constructed songs that are highly original. Using rich metaphors and clever plays on words, he communicates to his listeners with music that is both thought-provoking and meaningful. On stage, Trevor captivates his audience with a strong, soulful voice that can reach to a cutting falsetto with ease, all the while engaging them with witty banter and dance moves as entertaining as his music. Since he first hit the independent music scene three years ago, Trevor's fan base has grown immensely. Five songs from his first CD, Seven Days, have received radio airplay, and "grace" was added to the Volkswagon Auto-Show music cataloge. He plays to packed houses in Los Angeles and San Diego and recently started touring the west coast as often as he can. All the time spent on the road has allowed Trevor to craft his abilities and truly create his own sound. He is currently in the process of recording his first full-length album which will showcase his matured style and new material. Trevor's current release "B day in Bethlehem" is a Christmas Album containing an old sound mixed with modern production on some of today's holiday favorites. He completed the album in four days but the production is as good as any album that takes months to produce. This album will be sure to stay on the Christmas collection for many years to come.
