Electro industrial techno space opera funk 9 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Techno, ELECTRONIC: Trance Details: Situated somewhere between the Seven Hot and Cold Hells of the Nebula Oddity and the seedy home world of the Triple-Breasted She-Beast of Dimension XXX, Zenboy lies in wait. Recharging his Stroboscopic Death Ray he prepares for battle against the vile and remorseless Bionic Monster 01. Pain and death (and possibly a grilled cheese sandwich) are his only certainties. Fight he must or death will come to all. Zenboy vs. Bionic Monster 01 is the debut CD of Zenboy, a product of the electronic music underworld. Zenboy was raised by the wise nuns of "Our Lady of Perpetually Perky Mammaries" a Realian Transvestite Robot sex convent on Uranus. Under the tutelage of the fembot nuns, Zenboy learned the fine art of electronic knob-tweaking by being a tester of the "Realistic Love Handle Harness with Cheetah Print Panties", the highly acclaimed and best selling sex toy in the convent's marital aid sex toy factory. He's been a master of the "tweak" ever since. This flagship album Zenboy vs. Bionic Monster 01 on the Zenboy Galactic Media label was co-produced with Phillip Western (Download, Off and Gone and many others). Zenboy vs. Bionic Monster 01 promises to captivate the listener with "Titillatingly addictive and throbbingly sexy bass lines" and "Undulating erotically charged lust-filled grooves." Each track has that distinctive Zenboy slant of being simultaneously edgy and weird while still achieving a level of accessibility that's "just plain fun". Perfectly riding the razor thin edge of Fringe and Pop, the album oscillates between mean and dark to warm and textured. Zenboy is enlisting able-bodied recruits to be a part of his army of sexy good-times and dazzling erotic displays of joy. You can do your part by telling everyone you know about the CD. Spread the word and the love. Do it to help restore peace to the Galaxy.
