Many of the world's economic ills are due to our competitive money system - in which there is built-in economic scarcity and never enough money for people to pay off their debts, due to the debt-based way money is created. Bernard Lietaer - one of the world's most knowledgeable experts about our money system - and journalist Jacqui Dunne team up to describe how individual citizens, entrepreneurs, businesses, communities, and governments are creating new cooperative money systems around the world that provide a way out of our economic morass.
