This is Andy's fifth release, and third nothing-but-storytelling CD. He is a favorite at the National Storytelling Festival. He is funny. 5 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Storytelling, SPOKEN WORD: Comedy

Details: This third CD of nothing-but-stories once again features Andys Aunt Marguerite, that 80-something-year-old widow, recent medical school graduate, and chief-of-staff of Southern White Old Lady Hospital. On this record well learn how Marguerite became a self-described recovering racist. Well discover how Andy created an undeniable ghost in the cemetery for his boyhood friends. Well find out what happens when a deer looks in a mirror. There are flying rubber snakes, smashed watermelons, leaping Milk Duds, falling mannequins and roped-in beauty queens. Andy is Foghorn Leghorn meets Lily Tomlin meets William Blake. A native of Covington, GA, Andy started out in comedy, spending five years writing, directing and performing with SAK Theatre at Walt Disney World. When he returned to Georgia, he added music and storytelling because he had a lot more to say. He tours a lot, but when he's home he gets to be the host, storyteller, and audience trainer for the radio show, Evening Star, on Georgia Public Broadcasting. For sixteen years he was Artist-In-Residence at Oxford College of Emory University where he still butts in during rehearsals and does theatre workshops from time to time. He has had lots of more interesting life experience-type jobs including - but not limited to - actor; camp counselor; political satirist; youth director; janitor; deputy voter registrar; theatre orchestra conductor; garbage man; teacher; carpenter's flunky; and bullfrog tadpole catcher (Honest).
