"...combines a cool blend of rock and fusion, with a smattering of country licks and jazz stylings thrown in for good measure. A great combination of feel and chops." -Rod Morgenstein 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Fusion, ROCK: Instrumental Rock Details: "...combines a cool blend of rock and fusion, with a smattering of country licks and jazz stylings thrown in for good measure. -Rod Morgenstein (Dixie Dregs, Jazz is Dead, Platypus) Big Block Dodge is a groosion trio, groove meets fusion, quite the funky combination! BBD is the blend of three individual styles, gettin' down on the upstroke, taking the music to a new place with each performance like a musical highwire act! Funky bottom end courtesy of bassist Jeff Hinkle, old-school tone in a fresh young player, incredible west coast fusion percussion from San Francisco's Robin Tolleson and Asheville NC's Bill Altman on guitar, from a whisper to a scream, Bill leaves it all on the stage, every night!!
