as country as it gets. steel, fiddle, guitars a cryin' in yer beer. everything but yodels. 20 MP3 Songs

COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: a collection of songs penned during the sierra/owens valley period. just beginning to regain the use of my emotional faculties and cataloging all those experiences. some good, some not so... but all together, a very good case study of the elasticity of the human spirit. produced by steven cooper and the core of the chevy ford band, plus some awesome vocal talents from the nashville scene. here's what's on the platter... "pain loves company"... we all gravitate to that which makes us feel comfortable, to soothe the senses and emotions. lance miller sings about it. "big hair tight levis"... socializing on the dance floor to some really good music. ray barnette on the vocal chords. "can i love you 'til you love me"... having patience with someone you know needs to be with you can often bring about some dramatic changes for the better. john daniel coe sings. "daddy said"... the wisdom and love from a father is worth more than any amount of gold or riches. ray barnette explains. "f-y-i love you"... nothing like an inter-office, corporate love affair. chris aymes tells us. "i didn't say it that way"... my, my, how rumors get started... and spread around. lance miller gives us the low-down. "ramblin' kind of girl"... an independent woman who has her sights set on another way of living, but that doesn't mean her loving has changed. marcia ramierz sings it. "let's work it out"... how the little ones get wedged in between our domestic egos and the sacrifices that should be made for them. lance miller sings. "stupid, that's for me"... when you finally realize you're an idiot and have been all along. bubba hudson springs the realization on us. "lyin' next to me"... deception of the human heart. but forgiveness is not far off. lance miller tells us the story. "mr. don't give a damn"... some pain and betrayals you just can't get over. ray barnette shares. "turn me loose"... never know what you'll bump into at the grocery store, those chance, random meetings. lance miller explains it. "my baby's eyes"... the most hardened heart can be changed by new life. ray barnette sings. "the cheatin' kind"... no matter what you do or say, some folks just gotta have that extra ego attention and totally ignore true love. marcia ramierz sings the truth. "my tears still fall"... you know she treats you bad, but it hurts so good. ray barnette preaches the sermon. "nothing between us"... some relationships can't survive the past memories. they're stuck there and can't move on. lance miller on the vocal. "she's a beautiful girl"... amazing what a little time and growing up can stimulate. ray barnette explains. "why can't i love you if he won't"... it's a legitimate question, and one that deserves an answer. maybe lance miller gets his point across? "ain't no maybes about it"... how the party lifestyle can end a relationship. ray barnette preaches. "pickin' a grinnin'"... couldn't pick a better role-model to go after if true happiness is what you want. lance miller rides the full 8 seconds. SEE HEAR THE NASA VIDEO "L.E.O.
