A debut album of old-timey/folk/Americana music from a collective of songwriters - the lyrics and music evoke the back porch, whiskey drinking nights from which the songs arose. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Old-Timey, COUNTRY: Alt-Country Details: Dirt in the Whiskey began as an informal get together of several songwriters from Chicago bands. We would share new material with one another, get ideas, help each other polish our songs, talk about the world and have a good ole time. After a while we realized that we had developed a "sound" and had some songs that we all really enjoyed. So we pulled out a 16 track recorder and soon a CD was born (kudos to Matt Denny and our friends at Uptown Recording for their touch up magic). The instruments were recorded live with minimal overdubs, to capture the feel and the spirit of good buddies getting together to sing songs and tell tall tales. As you can hear, some of our discussions about the state of the world made their way into the songs. The CD is an example of what you can do when everyone pulls together in the same direction and is our grassroots demonstration that it does not take much to be heard. Dave Diamond: Bass Dan Kaplan: Dobro, Lap Steel, Vocals Thomas Pace: Mandolin, Vocals Drew Heckman: Guitar, Vocals People who are interested in Neil Young Steve Earle Uncle Tupelo should consider this download.
