Melodic pop, with some jazz, soul, blues and singer songwriter-reflection and a 70's sound to it. 10 MP3 Songs POP: 70's Pop, FOLK: like Joni Details: Glass: one part singer songwriter, one part band. Glass from Sweden combines the band and singer/songwriter categories and make it a simple yet original combo. I compare almost all the Glass songs to taking an 80's am catchy radio hit and symplifying it to it's bare essentials and you there you have a catchy, moody, beautiful little Glass number. Simple, smooth and delightfully good, a Glass that is always on the half full side. Marc Xavier Leblanc, photographer, dj and radio show host of (((la photo sonore))) radio show. Moncton NB, Canada Glass started out as a band during the winter of 2004. Henning met Robert Sll (guitars) through some of their mutual friends, and through his gut feeling he asked Robert if he liked to start a band with him after meeting shortly a couple of times. They quickly recorded 7 of Henning's original compositions to become a demo in Roberts flat and then arranged the songs together. Something that turned out to be melodic pop with influences from all kinds of music they liked. Influenced by the American songwriter tradition with a touch of 60s brittish pop and jazz. Life lines is their debut album, an album that is a bit similiar to the bumblebee that really can't fly, but does anyway. This album wouldn't really exist if it wouldn't have been for all the amazing people involved in it, contributing with their time and knowledge to make it happen, there are some of the top musicians of Sweden on it. They took small steps and used all of their means to make this album as genuin as possible, with no leading directions from anyone else except themselves and their helpful friends. It turned out with great result, this record really flies!
