Details: Often called the one-man band, musical Superman, a spirit realm "HIT-MAN"; H.A.W.C. was initially a group of the talented vocalists and the musicianship of Darrick Hawkins, Dante Hawkins Glendon Jones. Later, the group acronym, Holy Ghost Activated Warriors for Christ, evolved into the founder's identity. The surviving member assumed HAWC as his own name. Now with years of experience as a composer, director, writer, producer and worship leader the art of HAWC has crossed borders in the U.S. and beyond. While growing into a devoted husband and dedicated father of 4, HAWC became the songs he had written through out his years of supporting various ministries in the midwest from Victory In Pentecost to Rhema Christian Center and Vineyard Columbus, along with so many other churches. HAWC has now fused with the musical efforts of interchangeable band-mates vocalists to form "the Faithful Eclectic WARshippers" (The F.E.W.). Witnessing "HAWC the F.E.W." is an incomparable experience. HAWC's recordings house an energy extremely rare. Get the highly anticipated BATTLE CRY - vol. 1 "Loud Clear". This is just the beginning...
