HUTCH's winning debut CD appeals with some raw Lennon-isms, Westerberg-like swagger, Lo-Fi BECK-meets-Syd Barrett tones, with Badfinger songwriting genius, pointing up the road toward Lenny Kravitz the Goo Goo Dolls... A charming, original artist. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Classic Rock, POP: Beatles-pop Details:  BIO ------ BIO ------ BIO ------ BIO ------ BIO ---*--- BIO  "MY MUSIC CAPTURES THE ATTENTION OF LISTENERS WHOM, LIKE ME, CONSTANTLY FLIP THE CAR STEREO DIAL BACK AND FORTH BETWEEN CLASSIC ROCK, COLLEGE RADIO AND ALTERNATIVE STATIONS IN SEARCH OF SOMETHING GENUINE AND NEW." A New Jersey native living in Los Angeles, Joe "HUTCH" Hutchinson writes songs that document the human experience in a way that appeals to the everyperson. His ability to weave universal themes into his music has caught the ears of fans everywhere, including the folks at Budweiser, The Food Network, and legendary rocker Sammy Hagar, whom contacted Joe to co-write the title track to the latest Hagar release, "Not 4 Sale." With influences ranging from Classic Rock 60's Brit-Pop to the Blues, Roots and Folk, Joe Hutchinson is a prolific, self taught Singer/Songwriter who learned his craft from artists like Pete Townshend, Paul Westerberg, John Lennon, Ray Davies, and Paul Simon. HUTCH is at home performing intimate coffeehouse settings acoustically on guitar and piano, or delivering explosive full-wattage arena rock type shows with his bandmates. It's this type of versatility that keeps his music interesting and captures the attention of listeners who, like him, constantly flip the car stereo dial back and forth between classic rock, college radio and alternative stations in search of something genuine and new. A descendant of his once controversial ancestors, The Hutchinson Family Singers, (whom were famous during the mid 19th century for supporting many humanitarian efforts, including women's rights, temperance and abolition), Joe is committed to continuing the work of his family, and hopes to deliver an honest, positive message that will remain relevant for years to come. (Joe is a Green Party member, Anti-GMO Environmentalist, Mostly Vegetarian, and an active Wiccan supporting Renewable Resources, Alternative Energy, Organic Farming, Religious Freedom, Native American Heritage, and Historical Preservation.)
