Her high-energy performances have been affectionately described as "manic"--one minute her audience is in tears, laughing, followed by tears of reminiscence and introspection. Bob Brady, of Bismarck's Y93 FM station has called her music "thinking persons' music". But don't think if you don't want to; Kristin's strong playing and stage antics are enough to keep you amused and delighted. Her stories will touch your heart or your funny bone, and her lyrics-whether they're social commentary or just plain fun--will carry you home. People who are interested in should consider this download.
