Born on June 8, 1988, little Lova Boy LB was ready to take the world by storm. His love for rapping came at an early age, when he was old enough to talk. Normally you would say young children don't know what they want to do with there life but it was clearly that Lova Boy LB already knew what he wanted. In May 2005 Lova Boy LB teamed up with rising producer C. Henderson to work on the album that would change his life. Lova Boy LB hit the studio to start recording tracks for his debut album, later to be named "LOVA BOY". Recording started in May 2005 and lasted for seven months. With so many tracks recorded over time, there was no doubt that this album was going to be successful. Two months in recording with C. Henderson Lova Boy LB found that he also had a passion for producing. While in the studio he learned the studio trade that would come in handy down the road. In June 2005 he created the now up-rising single "Feelin' U". Feelin U was the first song recorded for the album. Once "Feelin' U" was mixed down Lova Boy LB already knew that it had to be the first single. In August 2005 Lova Boy LB recorded "Lonely", a personal track about a past relationship. With vocals from RnB group MJC lead vocalist Michael, people all around would be able to relate to "Lonely." "Lonely is about when you been in love and you don't know what to do when that person is gone", says Lova Boy LB. The unusual sound of the track proves that it would be likable throughout the world. By September 2005 Lova Boy LB had already gain a secured fan base and growing with only four clips from the album and a half full website. With his album already finish and waiting on release, Lova Boy LB took up producing in his spare time. He got together with his friend, Jay To Tha 3 and decided to produce Jay's album. Pulling out all the stops, Lova Boy LB turned to the one who got him started, C. Henderson, to watch over Jay's album and take Jay's music to the next level. "This is my first artist off my new label. I know that he will take the world by storm, so get ready", says Lova Boy LB. Lova Boy LB plans to release Jay's album late 2006. In March 2006 fans from all around fell in love with the "Feelin' U" creator first single as they listen to the full length song for the first time. With thousands of website hits every months, Lova Boy LB is currently on his way to the top.
