Details: Pollicer is an electronica/trance producer based out of Philadelphia, PA. His unique blend of various electronic styles make him unlike anything else around. This diversity shows on Pollicer's debut LP, "Songs For Those Who Yearn," a 9 song, 65 minute tour-de-force of sonic assault. The hard-hitting yet moody trance opener "This World" is sure to get people on the dance floor and is one of the most impressive sonic displays on the album, combining a keen sense of songwriting with dance sensibility. From there, "SFTWY" does not disappoint. The disco-house stylings of "Until the Morning Light," the new-age techno of "For Those Who Yearn For More," to the straight of crazy trance of "Stargazer," "Long Way From Home," "Open You Up (On the Inside)," and "Death Warrant" will get any party started. Perhaps the two most memorable tracks are "Alive," which is a downtempo dream song with amazing vocals from Jillian Goldin, and the 13 minute epic track "Who is John Galt," which slowly unfolds in three sonically rich sections. This last song is not for the faint of heart! Pollicer is here to stay. Look for new releases regularly from this new, completely unique artist!
