10 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Ambient, WORLD: World Traditions Details: Rick Brumeloe is a multi-instrumentalist/singer/songwriter with almost forty years in the business of music. He has entertained and recorded with a diverse collection of entertainers and writers, including such luminaries as Bonnie Raitt and Bill Bottrell (Sheryl Crow's friend and writer/ producer of such greats as "Leavin' Las Vegas".) He has been in bands with Mike Hossack from The Doobie Brothers, David Hayes, (Van Morrison's bass player/band leader for a long time), and James Preston, (drummer and singer for The Sons Of Champlin.) He was a member of the legendary and hardworking Mendocino band Philo Hayward And The Shuffle Band, and he spent several years living and working as a studio musician at Philo's Record Two Mendocino Studio. He was a big part of the big sound of perennial north coast favorites The Rockomatics, bar-band-extraodinaire, and Mike And The Mustangs, a powerhouse soul band and a fixture performing every year at The World's Largest Salmon BBQ in Fort Bragg. He has shared stages with Aynsley Dunbar from The Mothers Of Invention, Johnny Barbata of Jefferson Starship and The Turtles, Gatemouth Brown, Charlie Musselwhite, and Jimmy Hotter from Steely Dan. Among the many people he has done recording projects with are Gene Parsons, the venerable and well respected veteran of bands like The Byrds and The Flying Burrito Brothers, and Rick Shlosser. a fabulous drummer who is on many, many recordings with everyone from Rod Stewart to Juice Newton. Rick has opened for Dan Hicks and his Acoustic Warriors, The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, and Dave Mason, among others. One of Rick's current projects is "Up To Now", a collection of solo guitar sound poems written during a long hard fall and winter of 2005-2006. These instrumentals resonate with a reverent tone and ingenious technique that will leave you both at peace and intrigued by Rick's finger-picking ability. These songs live with a vibrancy and melody that may bring images along with the sounds. His other project for sale is "The Code Violators", a rockin', joyous, record by Rick's foot-tappin', sing-a-long band that will have you joining in The Code Violator way. Everybody danced and laughed a lot during the making of "The Code Violators" record.
