Western Folk Music which includes nostalgic, cowboy and sacred songs depicting the life of the "Hard Workin' Man". 16 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Western, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: The dynamic vocals of Skip Bessonette have entertained thousands over twenty years in the Northwest. Skip has performed at hundreds of resorts and hotels throughout California, Washington, and Oregon including an unprecedented two-years at the Ship Ashore Resort in northern California. Skip is best known for his incredible versatility, moving easily from love songs to rock, country to classic show tunes, his vocal range and richness have made evenings to remember for many fans. In the 1990's Skip has gone back to his pioneer-family roots on ranches and farms, and rediscovered a love of the west and the traditional values so important to him. Today his shows feature western folk songs, cowboy, and traditional gospel tunes. You may have heard Skip in concert at the Santa Clarita Cowboy Festival in California, Valley of the Rogue State Park here in Oregon or have seen him singing on TV. Skip's latest album is dedicated to "The Hard Workin' Man" and was written with his late father-in-law in mind. This album contains old favorites like "Ole Buttermilk Sky" and new songs like "Firehouse Caf" and "Hard Workin' Man". Skip Bessonette lives in Medford, Oregon and operates Skip Bessonette Audio/Video Recording Studio. Please visit his web site: skipbessonette.com.
