Taking the jazz standards and making them their own, the Michael Holmes Trio takes you on a joyful interpretive ride of these standard classics. 12 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals Details: Holmes and company sparkle on the classics! John Sinkevics, Grand Rapids Press Music Critic Michael Holmes is a regular entertainer in the Midwest best known for THE JUDY SHOW in which he impersonates the likes of Judy Garland, Carol Channing and Bette Davis. He has been entertaining audiences from Maui to Manhattan for several years. The jazz standards from the 30s, 40s and 50s have become the basis for my shows, and, consequently, my favorite genre of music, says Holmes. They are classics that never grow old and still touch many of the listeners in wonderful and joyful way. The Trio includes Michael Holmes on vocals, Mark Kahny on keyboards and synth bass and Bob Thompson on drums. Mark Kahny has extensively toured the US with many groups and has performed with Bobby Vinton, Red Buttons and Ray Charles and is regarded as one of Michigans best and most in-demand keyboardists. Check out Mark's solo CD "Universe of Two", also here on CDBaby.com. Bob Thompson, a career percussionist with forty years in the business, has had the pleasure of performing with Stevie Wonder, Lou Rawls, Edwin Star and many others. They first started performing together in 2005 and their popularity was immediate and has steadily increased. By popular request the trio put together this CD of twelve classic standards including Route 66, I Wish You Love, But Not For Me and the title song from the CD, Peter Allens If You Were Wondering, which has become Holmes signature song closing THE JUDY SHOW. Also appearing on the CD are Eddy Curtis on trumpet and flugelhorn and Tom Hagen on clarinet and guitar.
