Ultimate Productivity Mastership is a video series - broken into manageable sessions - on how you can maximize your limited resources in time, effort and money and trade them for higher gains in business! Consider this the discipline building program for success. You have a lot of ground work to do. You don't have the deep pockets to shortcut some areas in business, and you are relying solely on your own effort to get the ball rolling. Here's a more detailed look at my step-by-step course: Video 1 - The Power Of One Ultimate Productivity Working alone and starting your own business from scratch with little certainty of the future is very daunting. I expect you to be like most people who are just starting out - scarce resource in both time and money. "The Power of One" reveals breakthrough methods to empower yourself to focus your efforts for effects - trade effort for amplified results. Video 2 - Managing Yourself Ultimate Productivity How to set priorities and time management for your business game plan Eliminating 'time vampires' - how to get rid of counter-productive tasks and activities that do not empower you to build a profitable business and yourself as an entrepreneur! Accountability Partner -how to find a person or people with like-minded goals you can work with on a synergistic level And much, much more! Video 3 - Acquiring Productive Skills Ultimate Productivity How to get more hours in a day - find out how you can speed up irreplaceable tasks like reading, writing and any effort that leads to building the bricks for your online business. Discover the 80-20 rule and what they are when it comes to your personal life, social life and business life! Video 4 - Reward, Rinse & Repeat Ultimate Productivity Why and how to reward yourself with rest every now and then why the idea of "working hard for almost a year and going vacation for 2 weeks" is an obsolete idea - and embrace the mindset of the "new rich" aka mini-retirement plans! But That's Not All! Owners of rapidly expanding businesses usually fall prey to having the lack of time. If you work alone or in a small group, how would you like to multiply the results you enjoy today? And in the process spend less effort, time and money? And do it without hiring more permanent staff on payroll, eating into your monthly profits? Outsource Synergy is a 3-part extension course that shows you how to use your current resources smartly to leverage on freelancers and virtual assistants to build your business more intelligently so you can: Automate or semi-automate your online business without the need to involve yourself in the process, Get more work done, and Make more money!
