Details: Benjamin Grimes is an accomplished Native American Flutist, Oregon Native of the Willamette valley, and instructs Native American Flute courses at Oregon State University's Music department. With an ethnic mix of Native American, Celtic, and Germanic traditions, Ben's approach to the flute is one of unity through diversity. "Our differences give us strength through our knowledge and understanding of what makes each of us unique; Learn about others, and learn about yourself, but never forget that everyone is equal and that we all have the same value."
