Cynthia Todd is an educator, songwriter, singer and performer. Her music is published in the World of Music and the Sing Me A Song Series is published exclusively by Alpenhorn Press. Cynthia strives to bring children closer to their own imagination and develop a sensitivity for all life. Together with accomplished freelance artist, Cheryl D. Brain, delightful lyrics and tunes are transformed into illustrated song stories. Since the 1990s, Cynthia's music and books have been sung by children and educators in primary and elementary school classrooms in the Dept. of Defense Dependent Schools DODDS, the U.S. Domestic Dependent Schools - DDESS, International Schools in Europe and Asia and U.S. and Canadian School Districts. Her variety of song topics correlate with many curriculum areas. Cynthia shares her time living, writing and singing in Heidelberg, Germany and Sedona, Arizona. If you haven't heard the SING ME A SONG SERIES by Cynthia Todd, your students are missing a real treat!" European Music Educators Association Cheryl D. Brain The illustrations for Cynthia Todd's Song-books are inspired by Cheryl's love of traditional English children's books of the Victorian period. Cheryl lives and works from her studio in a 19th century cottage in rural Fife in Scotland, which she shares with her 2 dogs and long haired tabby cat.
