Thousands of miles apart. One garden afloat, an island no less, in the far Northern hemisphere, the other a resident of the Earths deep South. Opposites and yet complimentary. Joined by a common love for music and creativity. Shetland is the home of our Northern garden tended by Nat and David. Their journey to this special place is a story in itself. Escapees from crowds and traffic of some far distant city to the freedom and space of the wild northern seascapes. Then there is the magic. The link in the golden chain between these two gardens. The catalyst, the Home Groundthe music of Kate Bush. Our Southern Garden lies in Armidale, NSW. It is nurtured by Lissa Kathe. An artist of extraordinary vision, creator of majestic musical landscapes. Elemental, inspirational, drawing on the creative energy of all she sees, hears and feels. Lissas gift is unique; each song a journey inwards, melody weaving outwards dancing into the world embracing, soaring, lifting. These two Gardens may never have cross-pollinated but for a shared passion for the music of Kate Bush. Through this connection a path became visible unfolding through the trees. Gently at first the tides began to ebb and flow between our two Gardens until creativity blossomed in an explosion of musical collaboration and song writing. New doors were flung open, new ways found and rules abandoned. Hidden secrets belonging to the two gardens were released through the chemistry between the participants. LissaKathe's voice and piano, Davids voice and guitar and Nats words and imagination caught aflame catapulting the music skywards, upwardsAirborne. The result is an eclectic blend of stunning musical voyages through vivid sensual landscapes a delight, a joy. A world to escape to, to belong to. A world of emotion and inspiration. A place for the Spirit to soar and breathe. Welcome to the Light, the Sanctuary that is Garden2Garden. FN 6/11/07 ..
