With her generous heart, her tangible strength, and her fantastic voice, Hilary shines with a talent to share her stories with her audience and you are always glad you are in that audience! Karen Mason, Legendary Broadway and Cabaret Star Hilary is a Chicago-based cabaret singer, actor, and musical director. She received a Bachelor of Music in Music Theory and Composition, with a voice minor, from the University of Illinois in Urbana and a Post Graduate Degree in Music Production and Engineering, with a voice minor, from Berklee College of Music in Boston. After returning to Chicago in 1993, Hilary initially worked as a freelance audio engineer before quitting her life and starting over as a performer. For over a decade, Hilary was part of musical theatre productions at several Chicago area theatres, including the Ravinia Festival, Marriott's Lincolnshire Theatre, Drury Lane Theatre Oak Brook, Drury Lane Theatre Evergreen Park, Bailiwick Repertory Theatre, Centerlight Sign and Voice Theatre, and many others. Between Chicago, Urbana, and Boston, Hilary has performed with over a half dozen professional vocal ensembles, performing music from the Middle Ages through the current era, and ranging in styles from chant, classical and avant-garde to Broadway, pop and jazz. Hilary now considers cabaret her true artistic home. She is a proud member of Chicago Cabaret Professionals and performs her solo cabaret shows regularly at Davenport's Cabaret Room in Chicago, as well as many other local public and private venues. Recently, Hilary returned from Steamboat Springs, CO, where she had the privilege of sharing the stage with cabaret greats Andrea Marcovicci, Karen Mason, Shelly Markham, and Barry Kleinbort. Hilary is the founder and executive/artistic director of Acts Of Kindness Cabaret, a not-for-profit association of cabaret professionals who believe in the inspiring power of simple kindness, as well as the artistic value of cabaret. It is their mission to provide benefit cabaret performances, largely free of charge, as fundraising vehicles for other charitable organizations, spreading kindness through music to raise significant charitable dollars while increasing awareness, understanding, and enjoyment of cabaret.
